KEEPSAKE ORNAMENT SNEAK PEEK

Welcome to the Dream Book Party! We have exciting news about the 2014 Keepsake collection - and a peek at what we're working on for 2015!

ORNAMENT PREMIERE NEWS

We are so excited to be celebrating the anniversary of our longest running series in 2014! Frosty Friends is turning 35 and we are offering a special companion piece to commemorate this milestone. Frosty and two of his friends are back in a solar-powered kayak. The animals' heads will bob while Frosty paddles. There is also a Frosty Magic ornament planned for 2015!

By Tom Best

This ornament is a special offer to you for purchasing Keepsake ornaments during both Premiere AND Debut weekends in 2014. The musical soldier will kick off the first design in an unofficial "series" of musical soldiers to be released over the next few years.

WE HAVE SOME EXCITING KEN CROW PIECES AT ORNAMENT DEBUT AND WANT TO SHARE THEM WITH YOU NOW!

ORNAMENT DEBUT NEWS

Ken has outdone himself once again with one of our favorites called "Where Dreams Become Toys." Ken's master artistry is displayed on the ever-popular "Angel Chimes" or "Christmas Pyramid" tradition. This piece takes on a whole new level of excitement as you see Santa's elves hard at work building the toys as the candle lights flicker and the inside tiers spin to the music.

2014 DEBUT - MAGIC

Another Ken Crow design comes to life with the Magic Cord!

See twirling snowflakes projected on the ceiling as music plays and lights move to the beat! The tree topper is activated by a remote control.

NOTE: Designs are still in the planning stages and may change.

We're happy to introduce the Legacy Cord. Collectors have been asking for a solution to power their 'pigtail' Magic Ornaments (created by Hallmark from 1992-2009). This cord powers up to 4 vintage Keepsake Magic Ornaments. It is only compatible with Magic Ornaments produced in 2009 or before.
