A YEAR OF SWEET CUPCAKES!

LITTLE CUPIGGY

7th in the Keepsake Cupcake series

This little piggy has an arrow full of frosted love! He was conjured up in the mind of Keepsake artist Nina Aubé when she set out on a recent shopping trip to find the perfect swine-tastic birthday gift for her pig-loving sister. (Don't tell, but Nina's getting her sister one of these.) By Nina Aubé.

1½" w. x 2½" h. x 1¾" d.

LUCKY LEAP-RECHAUN

8th in the Keepsake Cupcake series

As a child, Keepsake artist Nina Aubé used to catch tree frogs when she visited her grandparents' farm in Kentucky. As an adult, she admits that she's kissed a few frogs that didn't turn into princes! Maybe the luck of this Irish croaker will change her luck in love. By Nina Aubé.

SOME BUNNY TO LOVE

9th in the Keepsake Cupcake series

When Keepsake artist Tammy Haddix was a little girl, she received a bunny for Easter that loved to munch on carrots and dandelions. Her fluffy fur ball sparked a memory that became the muse for this sweet little cupcake.

NEST SWEET NEST

10th in the Keepsake Cupcake series

May is all about birds and flowers for Keepsake artist Edythe Kegrize. As a child, she was thrilled when birds built nests under the eaves of her front porch and she could watch their babies hatch. Her memories inspired this design.

Designed by Edythe Kegrize.

FLUTTERING BEAUTY

11th in the Keepsake Cupcake series

For Keepsake artist Joanne Eschrich, butterflies have always been a symbol of hope and rebirth, and they remind her of June, when she celebrates several family birthdays. That's what she had in mind when she designed this fluttery beauty with its delicately frosted wings. By Joanne Eschrich.
